

Strategic Seasons

OBJECTIVE

This training explores the biblical principle of seasons in ministry. It emphasizes that God works in distinct seasons, each with its unique purpose and challenges. By understanding and strategically planning according to these seasons, you can maximize the effectiveness of your ministry. You'll learn how to discern the current season, align goals and plans with God's timing, prepare for future seasons, and cultivate patience and faith in God's plan. By applying these principles, you can experience greater fruitfulness and fulfillment in your ministry.
