

Building with the Right People

OBJECTIVE

As a leader, building strong and effective teams is essential. This training focuses on the characteristics of building teams, using Gideon's army as a model. We'll walk through practical tools to develop essential leadership qualities in others. Learn how to inspire responsibility, sharpen discernment, build unwavering faith, and cultivate unity. Empower your people to embrace their roles and achieve God-sized vision.

OVERVIEW

- Effective leadership starts with building the right teams
- Gideon's army exemplifies four key traits of effective leadership
  - Responsibility: Connect them to the people you are reaching
  - Discernment: Being spiritually aware and able to respond to what God is doing
  - Faith: Moving beyond faithfulness to being faith-filled
  - Unity: Show individuals how their role contributes to the whole
- Invest in your team

VERSES REFERENCED

Judges chapter 6-8

Jeremiah 17:7-8

QUESTIONS FOR FURTHER STUDY

1. Do you tend to focus more on finding ready-made leaders or developing them?
2. What one specific action can you take today to foster greater responsibility within your team?
3. How do you typically connect your team members to the people you are serving?
4. Do you clearly communicate how each individual's role contributes to the overall mission?
5. What practical steps can you take to improve in each of the four key areas: responsibility, discernment, faith, and unity?

SCRIPTURE FOR FURTHER STUDY

1 Corinthians 12:4-31

Ephesians 4:1-6